

GENERAL RULES

The following rules apply to all departments of the 4-H Section of the County Fair. Rules, which apply specifically to a particular department, will be listed under rules for that department. In the case the general rules conflict with department rules the department rules govern.

1. ELIGIBILITY REQUIREMENTS FOR EXHIBITORS - An exhibitor must be a 4-H member enrolled in the project he/she is exhibiting in the county in which he/she represents. Exhibitors must be enrolled by May 1 in the project in which they wish to exhibit. There will be no discrimination because of race, color, sex, national or ethnic origin, religion, age, handicapped, marital status or sexual orientation. A 4-H member must be 8 to 18 years of age inclusive on December 31st of the preceding year. The last year of eligibility is the calendar year the member becomes 19. The Johnson County 4-H Council maintains the authority to establish age limits for exhibitors outside of those stated above for youth with special needs/disabilities.
STATE FAIR – In classes where the presence of the 4-H member is required for judging purposes, such as animal exhibits, judging contests, communications events, and fashion show, a 4-H member must be 10 by December 31st of the preceding year or turn 11 during the current year. The last year of eligibility is the calendar year the member becomes 19. For classes where presence of the 4-H member is not required, the exhibitor must be 8 as of December 31st of the preceding year or turn 9 during the current year.
CLOVER KIDS – Clover Kid exhibitors must be enrolled by May 1 in the Clover Kid program. A Clover Kid member must be 5 to 7 years of age inclusive as of December 31st of the preceding year.
2. CROSS COUNTY AND CROSS STATE LINE PARTICIPATION – A member cannot enroll in the same 4-H project area in more than one county or state in the same year. (Example: beef [bucket calf, feeder calf, market beef, and breeding beef are among those listed within the beef project area], clothing, foods, etc.). Exception: Youth may enroll in shooting sports projects in more than one county. Enrollments should occur by discipline (i.e. shotgun, BB gun) based on the availability of certified instructors. Youth may not be enrolled in the same discipline in more than one county or state.
3. PROCEDURE FOR MAKING ENTRIES - All 4-H entries, pre-entries, and identification affidavits must be made on the appropriate forms provided by the Extension Office and submitted by closing on the Deadline designated by the Extension Office (see below).
If the deadline date falls on a weekend the deadline will be moved to the Monday immediately following the determined deadline date.*

7. NUMBER OF ENTRIES – 4-H members may exhibit one (1) entry per class unless otherwise noted. No entry can compete in more than one class.
8. PROJECT ENROLLMENT – Entries are allowed in only one unit/level of competition. Those exhibiting in a Middle or Advanced unit may not exhibit in a less advanced unit.
9. PROJECT ELIGIBILITY - Items entered for competition in previous years are not eligible for competition again unless otherwise noted. Additionally, items completed for another organization and/or school are not eligible for competition.
10. COUNTY ONLY CLASSES – Static exhibit classes that are listed in the 900s are county only classes and projects ARE NOT eligible to be chosen as State Fair exhibits.
11. SUPPORTING INFORMATION FOR EXHIBITS - Exhibits may require supporting information, check the appropriate Fair Book section to determine what additional information may be required. Exhibits lacking the required supporting information will be lowered a ribbon placing.
12. SCORING – Score sheets for 4-H static exhibit entries may be found on the web and are also available in the Johnson County Extension Office.
13. EXHIBIT RELEASE – The release times for the Johnson County Fair will be listed on the schedule. No exhibitor is allowed to remove any exhibit (static or live) on exhibition until the scheduled time without the permission of the area and/or overall superintendent and the permission of Johnson County Extension staff and/or Johnson County 4-H Council President and/or licensed veterinarian. Additionally, in order to remove animal(s) before the scheduled release time a Johnson County Fair Animal Release Form must be completed for each animal to be removed.
14. PROTEST COMMITTEE
 - A. The superintendents of each division at the County Fair have the authority to make the appropriate decisions based on the rules and regulations of the County Fair.
 - B. Designated members of the Johnson County 4-H Council and Johnson County Fair Board will serve as the Protest and Appeals committee. They will meet when needed to act upon any protest or appeals.
 - C. All protests must be submitted in writing and signed. Written protests and appeals must be submitted to the Johnson County Extension Staff. The staff person will convene the committee for their deliberation.
 - D. Written protests must include the following:
 - Names of persons involved
 - Nature of concern
 - Situation and documentation
 - Recommendations for correction
 - Specific action, rule, etc. in question
 - Additional persons committee may contact for further clarification
 - Procedures and/or steps carried out by person involved prior to submission of the protest to the Extension Staff person
 - E. The committee will review the written protest. They may discuss the situation with anyone they feel has knowledge of the situation. The committee's recommendation or decision will be communicated both verbally and in writing to the group or individuals affected. The committee will recommend appropriate action to the Extension Staff in writing prior to communicating with the affected group or individual.
 - F. In cases of protest, the exhibitor may be allowed to show pending the results of the committee's decision. Results of this showing may be subject to change based on outcome of the protest process.
 - G. The show management reserves the right to withhold premiums and/or awards. The exhibitor may be excluded from the show and/or 4-H Premium Sale if action warrants.
 - H. The appeals process is limited to the 4-H exhibitor, parent and/or volunteer leader. Protests will not be accepted after the exhibit is released from the County Fair. Protests related to judges' integrity, decisions, placing and/or other evaluations will not be accepted.
15. DISCLAIMER OF RESPONSIBILITY AT COUNTY FAIR
 - EXHIBITS – 4-H exhibits at the Johnson County Fair are entered and displayed at the risk of the 4-H member. The University of Nebraska – Lincoln Extension 4-H Youth Development, in cooperation with the Johnson County Fair Board cannot accept responsibility for loss or damage that may occur to exhibits or exhibitors.
 - PATRONS/PARTICIPANTS – While the greatest possible care will be exercised by the Johnson County Fair Board to protect patrons/participants of the Johnson County Fair, each individual will be held personally responsible for any injury, accident and/or loss.
16. INSURANCE – Accident insurance is carried on all currently enrolled 4-H members and volunteers in the Johnson County 4-H program. A report of all accidents must be made to the Johnson County Extension Office within 24 hours of the accident. Your claim must be filed with the Extension Office within 10 days after the accident.
17. RIBBONS AND PREMIUMS AWARDED – 4-H exhibits will be judged according to research-based standards that indicate level of performance or quality of work.
 - Purple ribbons designate an exhibit of superior quality that has met and exceeded all of the standards.
 - Blue ribbons denote an above average exhibit that has met almost all of the standards in a way that surpasses the norm.
 - Red ribbons indicate average quality and indicate that the exhibit has met the majority of standards in such as way that the benchmark was reached, but not exceeded.
 - White ribbons indicate that the exhibit has not met the majority of the standards.Entries incorrectly entered may receive a participation ribbon to recognize the exhibit's presence at the County Fair. Clover Kid exhibits will receive a rainbow ribbon to denote participation.
LIVESTOCK, POULTRY & HORSES – Exhibits must be purple quality to be named Champion or Reserve Champion and/or qualify for related special awards.
