POULTRY

GENERAL RULES – POULTRY

1. GENERAL RULES – See GENERAL ANIMAL RULES AND REGULATIONS
2. ENTRY LIMIT - An exhibitor is limited to a TOTAL of 12 individual birds, 2 trios or production pens of three, and 1 broiler pen of three (as part of the Johnson County Market Broiler Project). The following maximums per division are in place:
 - 6 birds in the large fowl division
 - 6 birds in the bantam division
 - 1 Trio (1 male and 2 females)
 - 4 birds in the duck division
 - 2 birds in the goose division
 - 2 birds in the turkey division

- 4 birds in the game bird, etc. division
- 1 broiler pen of three
- 1 production pen of three

 Birds in a Broiler Pen of 3, Production Pen of 3, or Trio may NOT be shown individually in other classes, except for showmanship.

- IDENTIFICATION - 4-H members may identify a maximum of 24 birds by documenting their species, breed, sex, and age on a Johnson County 4-H Poultry Ownership Affidavit. Affidavits must be completed and submitted to the Johnson County Extension Office by close on June 15.
- PRE-ENTRY - All poultry exhibits, including showmanship must be entered on a Johnson County Fair Large & Small Animal Entry Form to be eligible to show at the Johnson County Fair. This form must be completed and submitted to the Extension Office by closing on July 15. All poultry exhibitors must complete and submit a Johnson County Fair Stall Request Form indicating the number of exhibits being brought to the fair. Stall request forms must be completed and submitted to the Extension Office by closing on the Wednesday before Fair Clean Up Day.
- HEALTH REQUIREMENTS - A health certificate is not required. All poultry for exhibition shall be free of parasites and show no signs of disease during exhibition. Poultry exhibits may be tested by the Nebraska Department of Agriculture for Avian Influenza (AI) sometime during the Johnson County Fair. See GENERAL ANIMAL RULES AND REQUIREMENTS.
- DRESS CODE - See GENERAL ANIMAL RULES AND REQUIREMENTS.
- QUALITY ASSURANCE - See GENERAL ANIMAL RULES AND REQUIREMENTS.
- CARE REQUIREMENTS - All poultry require food and water at all times. The 4-H member is responsible for their care. The poultry superintendent and/or overall livestock superintendent has the right to dismiss an exhibitor's exhibits if proper care is neglected.
- BREEDS - To be eligible for exhibition the entry (cockerel, pullet, cock or hen) must be a fair representative of one of the breeds listed in the American Standards of Perfection.
- BANTAMS & OTHER POULTRY - The rules for standard size chickens apply equally to bantams, waterfowl and turkey where applicable.
- CHAMPION AND RESERVE CHAMPION - No overall grand champion and reserve grand champion will be selected from the poultry divisions.
- PRESENCE DURING JUDGING - Each 4-H exhibitor MUST be present at the exhibit area during judging, unless excused by the area or overall superintendent or UNL Extension Staff. If the participant or a substitute showman approved by the superintendent is not present and not excused, the exhibit will not be judged.

POULTRY SHOWMANSHIP RULES

- GENERAL RULES - See GENERAL ANIMAL SHOWMANSHIP RULES
- BIRD SELECTION - Participants may use any bird they so choose, so long as it was raised and trained by the 4-H member. Birds used for the showmanship class MUST be also entered in the live show.
- BASIS FOR JUDGING - Showmanship is based on grooming and training of the bird and the appearance and behavior of the exhibitor. The exhibitor must vocally explain the steps in their routine and the merit of the bird. Primarily showmanship is the skill of the exhibitor in presenting and explaining the bird before the judge. The excellence of the bird is not considered in scoring.
- QUESTIONS - The judge may or may not ask questions of the exhibitor at the close of the routine.
- TIME LIMIT - The maximum length of a showmanship presentation is four minutes. Exhibitors will be timed.
- RESOURCES - Information on poultry showmanship is found in "Selecting and Grooming 4-H Exhibition Poultry" (4-H 191) and online at the UNL Companion Animal YouTube channel: <http://www.youtube.com/user/companionanimals?feature=watch>

JOHNSON COUNTY 4-H MARKET BROILER PROJECT RULES

- GENERAL RULES – See GENERAL RULES – POULTRY
- PROJECT ENROLLMENT – 4-H members wishing to participate in the Johnson County 4-H Market Broiler Project must sign up with the Johnson County Extension Office by closing on June 1. Exhibitors will receive the chicks approximately six to eight weeks prior to the Johnson County Fair.
- PRE-ENTRY – Exhibitors must enter poultry showmanship, broiler record book, and market broiler pen of three classes on a Johnson County Fair Large & Small Animal Entry Form to be eligible to show at the Johnson County Fair.
- INTERVIEW (Q&A) – Exhibitors participating in the Johnson County 4-H Market Broiler Project must participate in the Market Broiler Interview class during the 4-H Poultry Show at the Johnson County Fair. The class will consist of a two-minute question and answer time where exhibitors will be asked questions about broiler production and their broiler project experience. The Interview class will be held during the Poultry Showmanship portion of the Poultry Show.
- RECORD BOOKS – All exhibitors in the Johnson County 4-H Market Broiler Project must complete a market broiler record book and submit it at the time of market broiler weigh-in.
- PEN OF THREE – Exhibitors are also required to exhibit market broiler pen of three during the Johnson County Fair. Only exhibitors who are participating in the Johnson County 4-H Market Broiler Project are eligible to show in this class. A market broiler pen of three is considered one unit and is eligible for the premium sale.
- RIBBONS – Exhibitors will receive ribbons for showmanship, record book, and pen of three classes.
- CHAMPION AND RESERVE CHAMPION – A Johnson County 4-H Market Broiler Project Champion and Reserve Champion will be selected for the Junior Division (ages 8 to 11 as of December 31st of the preceding year) and Senior Division (ages 12 and up as of December 31st of the preceding year). Selection will be based on points awarded for interview, record books, and market broiler pen of three. A participant's score from the broiler interview and record books will be added along with a score for market broiler pen of three. Points for market broiler live placing will be awarded as follows:
 - White ribbon = 60 point
 - Red ribbon = 70 points
 - Blue ribbon = 80 points
 - Purple ribbon = 90 points
 - Second purple ribbon = 5 extra point

RABBITS

GENERAL RULES – RABBITS

- GENERAL RULES – See GENERAL ANIMAL RULES AND REGULATIONS
- ENTRY LIMIT –
 - An exhibitor is limited to a total of 8 rabbits (showmanship does not count as an entry).
 - An individual rabbit may only be shown in one class.
 - Rabbits may not be exhibited in a fancy breed class and a commercial class.
 - Rabbits entered in the 4-H Companion Animal Show are not allowed to be entered in the Johnson County Fair 4-H Rabbit Show.
- IDENTIFICATION – All rabbits except fryers must have a permanent and legible tattoo in either ear (permanent marker numbers written in the ears of rabbits are not considered permanent ID numbers). Tattoo equipment is available for check out from the Johnson County Extension Office. Fryers are too young to be tattooed by June 15; however they do need to be identified on an affidavit. The animal's breed, sex, age, and identification number must be documented on a Nebraska 4-H Rabbit Identification Affidavit. Affidavits must be completed and submitted to the Johnson County Extension Office by close on June 15.
